🌀 23rd Year with CDC 🌀

Entertainment has always been a big part of Jana's life. As the youngest of six children and daughter to a musician father, she naturally fell in love with music and being the center of attention. Jana's parents owned and operated a professional recording studio and performers such as Crosby, Stills & Nash and Frankie Lane were regular visitors to Jana's childhood home. There were always inspirations and opportunities for Jana to perform, even if it was on the fireplace hearth.

At the age of six Jana found her real inspiration in dance teacher Bonnie Ratzen. Bonnie taught dance classes at the YMCA in San Diego where Jana took gymnastic lessons. So enamored with Miss Bonnie, Jana would sneak out of her gymnastics lessons to watch dance class. After learning that Miss Bonnie not only lived nearby but also taught dance out of her home, Jana's mom signed her up. One dance class led to two dance classes, two led to three; well you know how that works. Pretty soon Jana was dancing everyday studying: ballet, tap, jazz, musical theatre as well as gymnastics. As a young girl, Jana also sang on TV & radio commercials and several children's albums. Many of her recordings are still used today in dance classes and recitals across the country.

As a Bonnie Ratzin Dancer for twelve years, Jana participated in countless local and national competitions as both a performer and instructor. Some of her more memorable performances include the 1988 Super Bowl, 1988 Rose Bowl, the Leukemia Foundation Telethon, the "Big Ten" Kickoff Party, and industrial videos for the Yamaha Corporation. She began teaching dance at the age of fifteen, while continuing to be active on her school's ASB, cheer, gymnastics team and drama club.

After graduating from Patrick Henry High School in 1988, she continued her studies at Grossmont Community College. It was here in the Speech Communication department that she met a handsome and charming young man named Ron Romaine. Jana received her A.A. degree from Grossmont College and moved on to San Diego State University where she earned her B.A. in Speech Communication. After her graduation in 1993, Ron popped the question, on stage, in front of 1500 people during a dance recital. They married soon after and the adventure began!

After spending her childhood and young adult life completely involved in dance, Jana decided to take a break, use her degree and try life in the corporate world. After one short year working in the sales department for the Westgate Hotel, she realized the dance world was where she belonged. Her dream of owning a studio was rekindled and became Jana's single focus. She began teaching at several dance studios throughout San Diego County and was able to train and teach with some of the best talents in San Diego.

Jana began teaching at the Carlsbad Dance Centre in 1996. It was here that she met one of the more important influences in her life, Ginya Sherlock. Jana spent her time teaching and learning everything she could about the Dance Studio business. Although Ginya was the boss, they shared a special "soul-sister" connection and remain close friends today. The Carlsbad Dance Centre always felt like home to Jana, so when Ginya decided to retire it was a natural fit for Jana to become the new Owner/Director.

Jana has extensive training and experience in jazz, tap, ballet and musical theater, and loves teaching dancers of all ages. It's her desire to instill each dancer with confidence, pride and discipline while helping them attain a passion for dance.

On her days off, Jana enjoys spending time with her husband of 25 years, and business partner since 2002, Ron. She'd like to express her love and gratitude to him for all these years of "craziness!"

Jana was inducted into the Carlsbad Dance Centre Hall of Fame in 2002.
